Enhanced Security Measures When Entering Queen City Ex

Regina, Saskatchewan – There will be enhanced security measures at the gates for the final five days of the Queen City Ex (QCX) presented by Sasktel. Gates open at noon today with the event wrapping up Sunday, August 29.

Guests should plan accordingly for increased time to get through the gates when arriving for the Ex.

Regina Exhibition Association Limited (REAL), the operators of the Queen City Ex, are implementing metal detection screening at all QCX gates. In addition, every bag, regardless of size, will be searched before entry is permitted.

Below is a list of prohibited items that will be confiscated if found.

- Outside alcohol
- Non-prescription drugs
- Any object in security's opinion that may be used as a weapon, including all knives.
- Aerosol cans (i.e. hairspray, silly string)
- Skateboards, roller skates or Heely's shoes
- Signs which obstruct stadium pageantry or signage
- Whistles, electronic noisemakers, or compressed air horns
- Laser pointers/pens
- Poles or sticks (including selfie-sticks and flag poles)
- Obscene or indecent signs or clothing (at the discretion of security)
- Glass bottles, cans, or jars
- Pets except for service animals
- Unapproved pamphlets, handouts, or advertisements

Guests are reminded that during the QCX there is a compliment of Regina Police Service Officers (uniformed and plain clothes), contracted security and REAL Security Personnel on site.

If a guest witnesses anything suspicious they are asked to report it to the nearest security officer or guest services. For information on what is happening during the QCX visit www.queencityex.com.
