Regina Exhibition Association Limited and Regina Pats extend their partnership agreement

Regina, Saskatchewan – The Regina Exhibition Association Limited (REAL – operator of Evraz Place) and Regina Pats ownership group Queen City Sports and Entertainment Group (QCSEG) are pleased to announce a lease extension to May 2023.

Evraz Place has been the proud home of the Regina Pats since the team began in 1917. The lease extension signifies the continued strength of the long-standing partnership along with a strong mutual desire to support the growth of the Canadian hockey fan base for years to come.

“We’re pleased to continue our strong partnership with the Regina Pats Hockey Club,” said Tim Reid, REAL President and CEO. “We’re excited to continue working together in our common commitment to our community and extending a century-long partnership.”

“REAL and its leadership, led by Tim Reid, has shown true initiative in working with the Regina Pats and most importantly our community” commented QCSEG President, Anthony Marquart. “This extension allows both parties the proper time to determine what is best when considering a refurbished or new entertainment facility.”

The details of the extension are confidential.
