Delicious Things are Happening at the REAL District

Regina, SK- The Regina Exhibition Association Ltd (REAL) and Levy Canada are pleased to announce an exciting partnership on a new café and market concept at the AffinityPlex on the REAL District. Beginning August 31, 2023 the Tim Hortons and Western Pizza kiosk will transition to the new food and beverage destination, which is set to include REAL market coffee and a REAL flavours inspired menu. Initial menu highlights include convenient café favourites like fresh baked goods, satisfying snacks, and refreshing beverages, with additional nutritious grab 'n' go items and hot grilled entrées to be added in the near future.

During the transition period of the AffinityPlex location, our commitment to providing food and beverage options to our District community will remain unwavering. While there may be some changes in the services offered throughout the re-branding stages, the hours of operation will remain constant. We kindly request your patience as we work towards transforming the space.

This partnership reflects our ongoing dedication to executing the REAL 2.0 strategic plan, aimed at enhancing our district and improving the overall experience for our valued guests.
